MAIL ORDER CATALOGUE

Samhain/Yule 2003

After a long and well-deserved hiatus over the Summer months we're back with a new catalogue for Samhain through to Yule and the Winter months. You'll notice the absence of our Magazines & Newsletters section; unfortunately, due to poor sales in that department we've decided to cease distribution of all magazines and newsletters. (That's also why this catalogue is one third smaller than the previous one!) Of course, we've got a nice pile of back-issues to get rid of (cheap!) and that's where you come in, dear reader! All our back-issues are $1, write or email us for more details.

New booklets this edition include: 2004 Slingshot Organizer, Anarchist Survival Guide, Little Sister Security Reader, Pirate Tactics, Prison Writings of Rob Los Ricos, Ozymandias Sabotage Handbook, Scouting Manual, and Surveillance and Counter-Surveillance. PLUS! An exciting new video! ...not something you might expect us to carry: Star Dreams, a documentary exploring the mystery of the crop circles. Check it out! You will be amazed beyond your wildest dreams!

New to Black Cat? This is what we're about: We distribute tactical information relating to animal and earth liberation and anarchist and anti-capitalist politics, as well as the best of the how-to informational guides. Our purpose here is to spread information to the activist communities because we believe in the axiom, "Knowledge Is Power." It's time to become empowered!

To receive periodic catalogue updates and special offers join our very low volume announcements list, go to <https://lists.resist.ca/mailman/listinfo/blackcatdistro> and subscribe your email address. For further info write to us at blackcat@resist.ca. This catalogue can be viewed online at <http://users.resist.ca/~blackcat/Catalogue.pdf> or download a copy for printing at <http://users.resist.ca/~blackcat/Catalogue.print.pdf>.

★ BOOKS ★

A Language Older Than Words

by Derrick Jensen

At once a beautifully poetic memoir and an explanation of the various ways we live in the world, A Language Older than Words explains violence as a pathology that touches every aspect of our lives, and indeed affects all aspects of life on earth. This chronicle of a young man's drive to transcend domestic abuse offers a challenging look at our worldwide sense of community, and how we can make things better. A must read for the conscious person! 399 pages. $27 Can./$18 US

The Culture of Make Believe

by Derrick Jensen

In arguably his best book yet, Jensen examines the atrocities that characterize so much of our culture - from lynchings in early 20th-century America, modern slavery and corporate misdeeds to manufacturing disasters, death squads in developing nations and the destruction of the natural world. Interweaving political, historical, philosophical and deeply personal perspectives, Jensen argues that only by understanding past horrors can we hope to prevent future ones. Impeccably researched, The Culture of Make Believe arrives at some shocking and thought-provoking conclusions. 700 pages. $27 Can./$18 US

Days of War, Nights of Love: Crimethink For Beginners

Published by the CrimethInc. Workers' Collective

Boasting a format that is truly beyond description, Days of War, Nights of Love contains articles, essays, stories, interviews, posters, artwork, maps, myths, realities, fantasies, historical accounts, declarations, manifestos, and exclamations aimed at the revolution of your world. Full of exciting ideas and amazing tales, this brilliantly and abundantly illustrated tome is your ticket to a world free of charge! 292 pages. $15 Can./$8 US

Direct Action: Memoirs of an Urban Guerrilla

by Ann Hansen

Ann Hansen stood trial, was sentenced to life, and spent seven years in prison for her involvement in Direct Action (known as the Squamish Five after their arrest near Squamish, BC), an urban guerrilla group in the early '80s based in Vancouver, BC. They believed that sabotaging government and corporate property was necessary to make change, so they bombed a missile factory and a hydro substation. This is Ann's story. 493 pages. $20 Can./$17 US

Ecodefense: A Field Guide To Monkeywrenching (3rd Edition)

Edited by Dave Foreman and Bill Haywood

This classic direct action manual teaches everything from spray painting billboards to sinking whaling ships, blockading logging roads to disabling heavy equipment, with an extensive "must read" chapter on basic security. 352 pages. $30 Can./$25 US

Evasion

Published by the CrimethInc. Workers' Collective

Evasion is one person's travelogue of thievery and trespassing across the country, evading not only arrest, but also the 40-hour workweek and the hopeless boredom of modern life. The journey documents a literal and metaphorical reclamation of an individual's life and the spaces surrounding them - scamming, squatting, dumpstering, train hopping, and shoplifting a life worth living and a world worth fighting for. 288 pages. $11 Can./$6 US

InTERRORgation: The CIA's Secret Manual on Coercive Questioning

by the CIA, published by ParaScope

Declassified in 1997, this book on interrogation techniques offers an inside view of the CIA's hostile interrogation strategies - methods for inducing mental and physical agony. The CIA explains the best ways of making people talk and methods of extracting information. A must read for anyone at risk of arrest. 56 pages. $10 Can./$8 US
